Our Organisation and its values

We are Leeds University Union, a democratically-led charity that helps over 38,000 students love their time at Leeds. We want to make student life the best it can be by supporting students to fuel their passions, creating a celebrated fun and lively community and supporting them to be their best selves, through all the activities we deliver at LUU. This ranges from our Clubs and Societies Programme, our academic advocacy, an independent Help and Support service, and a set of café/bars that build community amongst others.

We have embarked upon an exciting project – our Community Engagement Model Project will deliver an additional 10 paid part-time roles be elected by our students, a refocus of the full-time Elected Trustee roles to create a closer link of power and accountability by, for and between students, Engagement Leaders and Student Executives, which will embed a culture of advocacy, mobilising and organising.

What is an Elected Trustee?

LUU is overseen by our Board of Trustees, its remit can be summarised as:

1. To agree the method for measuring objectively the progress of LUU in relation to its vision, mission, strategic objectives/priorities, plans and annual targets, and to regularly receive reports on the performance.
 2. Providing effective financial management, and compliance with legal, regulatory and statutory requirements.
 3. Safeguarding the reputation of the organisation.
 4. Ensuring processes exist for the monitoring and evaluating the performance of staff, services and activities.
 5. Supporting the Chief Executive and reviewing their performance.
 6. Oversee and ensure implementation of effective risk management systems.
- You will not be alone, LUU staff will be there with you every step of the way.

What does the Postgraduate Research Trustee Do?

The PGR Trustee stands apart from the other elected trustee roles by providing a dedicated governance-level voice for postgraduate researchers. While the Academic Experience Trustee leads on academic representation for all students, including PGRs, this role specifically guarantees that PGR perspectives influence Union strategy, risk, and long-term decision-making. Together, the two roles ensure PGRs are represented both academically and organisationally.
